Readathon

Reading to help children in hospital

The Readathon finished today, please send in your sponsorship money or pay online ASAP. Thankyou for encouraging your children to read and supporting this

Achievement For All Award

Over the last 2 years the staff, parents and pupils have been working hard to improve outcomes for children. On Tuesday we were awarded the prestigious AfA Quality Mark recognising the success we have had especially through Structured Conversations and improved parental engagement. Well Done All!

Ten Million Minutes Reading Challenge

Thank you to all those children who read avidly for the last week in our bid to win this National Competition. We are still awaiting the final results. Altogether we read for over an amazing 17,000 minutes! Excellent effort.

OUTSTANDING PAYMENTS—Please can you make sure that payments are up-to-date for all school trips, swimming, camp, lunches, etc. Without parental contributions we may not be able to run the wide range of activities that we currently offer. Thank you for your support and understanding.

Book Club—
Don't forget to place any final orders from Scholastic over the weekend.
