COMMENTS

3 parents made specific comments:

- Homework can feel excessive for 4/5 year olds
- The appropriate amount of homework might be none for children under 7 as in e.g Finland. Homework is a big source of stress in our house. What homework is expected seems to change with each teacher. Mathletics and Abacus seem to be effective. Recent sheets with short texts and 6 questions good also.
- Visitors – There are far too many Christian evangelist visitors in the school.
- Our children are doing very well educationally and are always safely cared for in school.
St Erth school prioritises the individual needs of our children and caters for their educational needs i.e dyslexia support
I am highly impressed with the teachers at St Erth School and the leadership is excellent. The school is a happy environment where children thrive.
I would like to extend gratitude and sincere appreciation to the dedicated teachers and teaching assistants who are tirelessly supporting our children at school.
The dedication shown is commendable and noteworthy. Thank you St Erth School.

Academy Consultation Questionnaire

CONSULTATION ON PROPOSAL TO CONVERT TO ACADEMY STATUS AND JOIN TRURO & PENWITH ACADEMY TRUST

QUESTIONNAIRE

About you (Please tick one, or more, which apply to you)

Parent/Carer	1,1,1,1,1,1,1,1,1,1
Teacher	1,1
Support Staff	(1)
Local Resident	(1,1,1)
Other (Please state) _____

1. What does St Erth School do well and you would like to see continue?

- Teaching, informing parents, helping children to progress, teaching to individual ability, wide range of after school clubs.
- Good communication between parents and staff, exciting curriculum which caters for individual needs of children to ensure a good level of progress is made by all
- Small, friendly environment where the kids all know each other and are happy to go to school. Great teaching my children are thriving academically
- Provides a good level of education and a sense of community for my child
- Small class sizes and remaining village school with close links to community, Mr Hammond is a real asset to the school
- Happy with all aspects of the school
- The school is friendly, the teachers are all very good. The help and encouragement is greast. The TAs are an asset. The trips and outside work is good.
- Keep the children happy.
- Listening to the children and their parents
- A good headteacher. Good teachers and good governors who have created a link to the parents. I would hate the school to lose the governors
- Good team work among staff in order to raoise the overall standards. Curriculum and school routines are well thought out. Children are given a full and varied curriculum including forest schools, music etc

2. Do you support St Erth School converting to an academy as part of Truro & Penwith Academy Trust

YES	1,1,1,1,1,1,1	NO	1	MAYBE	1,1,1,1,1,1,1

3. Is there anything else you would like to say about the proposed academy conversion?

- I've heard nothing but bad about academies, where I used to live there were a lot of academies and Ofsted reports were bad
- I don't know enough about the change to know what the change will mean for my children
- I want to know more about how this will change my child's education
- Based on what I've read it seems a good idea
- It would be good to have more music and sports focus/opportunities
- I don't enough to judge whether or not the school would be better as an academy. I would be concerned that it might allow more Christian Evangelists access to the children. The main reason given for change seems to be that other schools are becoming academies - maybe that's enough? Sharing resources etc. I'd like to know if TPAT have affiliations or sponsorship by any faith groups. Would academy status allow partisan governors influence the curriculum?
- Will it make any difference to the children?
- I feel that it is important that St Erth primary keeps its identity as a village school and allowed to manage their own curriculum/assessment and routines.
- The school must do what's best to make sure it can continue to be an excellent school - if that means becoming an academy then you have my full support
