

'I have an avid interest in the school with 4 children attending St Erth School. I also have over 15 years' experience working with over 40 schools in Cornwall, supporting technology but also school life and working closely with senior leadership teams and helping MATs with decision making. I am a specialist in saving schools' money, and work closely with google for education and other industry leaders.'