

Pen Portrait – Phoebe Sampson

'I have enjoyed living in St Erth since 2006, and my son attends St Erth School. My work background is in project management, co-ordinating training, and career coaching in corporate settings across Cornwall. I'm good with business and administration, enjoy working with people from all backgrounds, and have particular interests in protecting and nurturing our environment, music and creativity.'