

Easter fun at Hayle Heritage Centre

Hayle Heritage Centre is re-opening on the 11th of April and, to celebrate, we have lots of family fun activities planned.

Use our free Millpond map to take a trip around this beautiful nature reserve, finding out fun facts and spotting the reserves wildlife – can you find the turtles?

Pick up a map at Hayle Heritage Centre or download a copy via our website - www.hayleheritagecentre.org.uk

On the 11th of April, drop into the Heritage Centre at either 11am or 2pm for a guided walk of the Millpond and Ropeworks, led by Trevor Smitheram. Tickets £3. The walk is suitable for all ages and there is no need to book ahead.

Fancy getting creative and making your own prints? On Wednesday the 13th of April we are running family printmaking workshops with Illustrator Vicki Aimers.

Choose from one of the following three sessions:

10am-11.30am

12.30pm-2pm

2.30pm-4pm

Suitable for children aged 7+.

Tickets £5. Places limited so please book ahead by emailing daisy@harveysfoundrytrust.org.uk or calling 01736 757683.

Can you find Harvey the Horse? We have new free children's trails (suitable for various ages) to help children explore and learn about Hayle's fascinating past. The trails are available to pick up at the front desk, and children will get a sticker and Easter treat when they have finished the trail.

We are open on Monday 11th April, Wednesday 13th, Wednesday 20th and Friday 22nd over the Easter half term, 11am – 4pm. For more information, please visit our website at www.hayleheritagecentre.org.uk
