

Rachel Brotheridge – Pen Portrait

I started working as a Tax Adviser for a Swindon Accountancy firm back in 1991. Since then I have qualified as a Chartered Tax Adviser and now have more than 25 years' experience in the industry.

I moved to Cornwall with my husband and 9 week old daughter, Ava, in 2011 and we both became Partners at Greenwood Wilson Accountants in St Ives. In 2013 I had my second daughter, Orla, and now try to only work part-time.

I became a parent Governor in 2017 and have enjoyed being more involved with St Erth School.
